You may specify that such an instruction is to apply for a limited duration or for an indefinite period (a "Good till Cancelled" or "GTC" order). However, once the level has been reached you may not cancel or amend the level of the order. If you enter into any Contract and place a Stop or Limit Order which, when executed, would be capable of closing or partly closing such Contract and you subsequently instruct us to close that Contract, or any part of it prior to the level of the Stop or Limit Order being reached, it is your responsibility to cancel the Stop or Limit Order if you do not want the order to remain valid. If you close your original Contract and fail to cancel the Stop or Limit Order, we shall be entitled in our absolute discretion to treat the Stop or Limit Order as an instruction to enter into a new Contract for you once our quote or (as the case may be) the relevant market quotation reaches or goes beyond the level of the Stop or Limit Order.
- The conditions referred to in this paragraph are as follows:
 - When you instruct us to close part but not all of a Contract entered into, both the part of the Contract which you instruct us to close and the part which would remain open if we carried out your instruction must not be smaller than the minimum size advised by us to you from time to time.

- The terms of this client agreement, and the rights and obligations of the clients hereto, shall be governed by, construed, and enforced in all respects by the laws of Australia. 17. RISK DISCLOSURE

- You should not deal in these products or engage in any of these services unless you understand the nature and the exposure to risk. You should also be satisfied that the product is suitable for you in light of your circumstances and financial position. Different instruments involve different levels of exposure to risk, and in deciding whether to trade in such instruments you should be aware of the following factors concerning trading the derivatives products in AUS GLOBAL:

- AUS GLOBAL does not claim any account information to customers, please safekeeping your account and password, and ensure that any of your transactions are motivated by your willingness.
- AUS GLOBAL does not provide any investment advice and will not help customers to trade any product. Any opinions, news, analyses, prices, or other information contained on AUS GLOBAL website are provided as general market commentary and do not constitute investment advice, and not to persuade or recommend customer to buy or sell any over-the-counter products or other financial products.
- A.FUTURES
 - Transactions in futures involve the obligation to make or take delivery of the underlying asset of the contract at a future date, or in some cases to settle your position with cash. They carry a high degree of risk. The “gearing” or “leverage” often obtainable in futures trading means that a small deposit or down payment can lead to large losses as well as gains. It also means that a relatively small market movement can lead to a proportionally much larger movement in the value of your investment, and this can work against you as well as for you. Futures transactions have a contingent liability, and you should be aware of the implications of this, in particular the margining requirements.
- CONTRACTS FOR DIFFERENCE
 - Futures and Options contracts can also be referred to as contracts for difference. These can be options and/or futures on the FTSE 100 index or any other index or share, commodity, or currency. However, unlike other futures and options, these contracts can only be settled in cash. Investing in contracts for difference carries the same risks as investing in a future or an option and you should be aware of these as set out in paragraphs A respectively. Transactions in contracts for difference may also have a contingent liability and you should be aware of the implications of this.

18. INTERNET DEALING

- You acknowledge that the internet is, due to unpredictable traffic congestion and other reasons, an inherently unreliable medium of communication and that such unreliability is beyond our control.
- Trading on the internet is not instantaneous and several seconds may elapse between the time when you give your order via the internet to us and the time when it is received by us, in which time the market may have moved, and your order may be implemented at a different value from that when you initiated the order on your PC.
- We reserve the right not to execute an order by you until it has been received by us.
- We shall not be liable for any loss, expense, cost, or liability (including consequential loss) suffered or incurred by you as a result of instructions being given or any other communications being made via e- mail or via the internet.
- You will solely be responsible for all orders and for the accuracy of all information sent via the internet using your name or personal identification number.
- You further acknowledge and agree that there are risks of misunderstandings or errors in any communication and that such risks shall be absolutely borne by you.
- You acknowledge and agree that it shall not usually be possible to cancel an instruction after it has been given.
- The time shown by our electronic logging system and the information contained on our server shall be conclusive between us as to the exact time of receipt of any messages or order and as to the accuracy of the information.

19. FORCE MAJEURE EVENTS

- We may in our reasonable opinion, determine that an emergency or an exceptional market condition exists (a "Force Majeure Event"). A Force Majeure Event shall include, but is not limited to, the following:
 - Any act, event, or occurrence (including without limitation any strike, riot or civil commotion, hostilities, foreign intervention, governmental actions, natural disaster, Act of God, an interruption of power supply or electronic or communication equipment failure) which, in our opinion, prevents us from maintaining an orderly market in one or more of the investments in respect of which we ordinarily deal in Contracts.

- The suspension or closure of any market or the abandonment or failure of any event upon which we base, or to which we in any way relate our quote, or the imposition of limits or special or unusual terms on the trading in any such market or in any such event.
- The occurrence of any excessive movement in the level of any Contract and/or the underlying market or our anticipation (acting reasonably) of the occurrence of such movements.
- If we determine that a Force Majeure Event exists, we may in our absolute discretion without notice and at any time take one or more of the following steps:
 - Increase your deposit requirements.
 - Close any or all of your open Contracts at such closing level as we reasonably believe to be appropriate.
 - Suspend or modify the application of all or any of the terms of this agreement to the extent that the Force Majeure Event makes it impossible or impractical for us to comply with the term or terms in question.
 - Alter the last time for trading for a particular Contract.
 - Take or omit taking all such other actions as we deem to be reasonably appropriate in the circumstances relating to our position, your position, and the positions of the other customers.
 - In the event of the above events, AUS GLOBAL shall not be liable to the Client for any claims, losses, damage, costs and expenses, including lawyer's fees, arising directly or indirectly out of such events.

20. ENTRY INTO FORCE

- This Agreement shall not be deemed accepted by AUS GLOBAL and shall not become a binding contract between the Client and AUS GLOBAL until the Agreement and the Customer Account Application, including all relevant annexes, have been completed and executed by the Client and received and accepted by AUS GLOBAL, a notice whereof shall be given to the Customer.

21. RISK WARNING & DISCLAIMER

- The facilities we provide are available only to experienced investors with sufficient financial resources to trade in our investment products. The following statements are intended to make you aware of and disclose to you the potential risk and loss in respect to the trading on the financial markets. You must familiarize yourself with the nature of CFD trading, the terminology used and the procedures involved before you enter into any contract. Our rolling spot contracts and CFDs are based on highly leveraged margin trading. as with any derivative instrument, such contracts carry a very high degree of risk and trading such instruments may expose the investor to substantial losses as well as gains. The gearing and leverage that is obtainable with CFD trading means that you only need to place a small deposit to commence trading with us although this small deposit may result in large losses or large gains. You must consider that if the market moves against you, you may sustain a total loss greater than the funds deposited. It is your responsibility to ensure that you are fully aware of all these risks before entering into any contract.

- If you have any questions about this Agreement or the nature and suitability of the services we provide, please contact us before commencing any activity on your account. We will assume that, on commencement of business, you are satisfied that all terms relating to your facility with us have been fully understood and accepted by you. We will assess your application from the information available to us and in particular the responses you have given in completing the Customer Information Sheet. If you are accepted as a customer, it will be on such a basis.
- Accordingly, we will classify you as a private customer. You should not proceed with this arrangement unless you have carefully considered whether it is appropriate for you and are satisfied with these terms. Investors should note that to protect their interests, we may set zero stop orders where no client order has been placed to minimize losses. In this event, clients cannot lose more than their initial commitment.

22. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- We provide herewith a summary of the policy we maintain in order to manage conflicts of interest in respect of the duties we owe to our clients.
- GENERAL
 - A conflict of interest can arise between AUS GLOBAL and you as a client or between your interests and those of another client of ours. We aim to establish and maintain and operate effective organizational and administrative arrangements with a view to taking all reasonable steps to

- DISCLOSURE GENERAL
 - Where our arrangements to manage conflicts are not or cannot be sufficient to be reasonably confident that risks of damage to a client's interest will be prevented, we aim to disclose the general nature and/or sources of conflicts before carrying on business for the client. This is to allow the client to consider whether to ask for more information and whether to continue with the service. We do not aim to provide detailed, highly specific, or comprehensive information.
- GIFT AND HOSPITALITY
 - We do not prohibit our staff from receiving small gifts and minor hospitality from other parties with which we do business but only where in the opinion of a director or senior manager it is at a level that is not lavish or excessive and only where it will not impair our duty to act in the best interests of our clients or other legal or regulatory obligations.

23. FORCED LIQUIDATION CONDITION

- All the trading accounts opened in AUS GLOBAL, the system will automatically sound when the margin level is less than 50%, then customers need additional margin to avoid forced liquidation, when the margin level is less than 30%, the system will start gradually forced liquidation in accordance with the order of the
